THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

LESSON X, SECOND QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, JUNE 5.

Text of the Lesson, Mark iv, 1-15 Memory Verses, 12-14—Golden Text Luke xiii, 4—Commentary Prepared by Rev. H. M. Stearns.

After the passover and the institution of the supper in the last lesson our Lord spoke to the eleven, the wonderful words of John xvi to xvi and prayed as recorded in John xvii. Then He went forth over the brook Cedron with His faithful few to the Mount of Olives and into the garden of Gethsemane, cast off by His son Isaac (Ex. iv. 22-24). This was foretold by trayed with Him, with His faithful few, crossed the same brook, cast out to Hisson Abaddon (II Sam. x, 23, 30, but in that case the wicked son was slung, while here in our lesson the righteous King is to suffer in the stead of His enemies, the just for the unjust (I Pet.

III, 18; Rom. v, 8).

The agony of the conflict in the sacrament, the sleeping disciples, the betrayal and arrest of our Lord, Simon Peter's blunder with the sword, the disciples all fleeing, Jesus alone are Am-

The morning came, the morning ment to Him who was the Father of all, the Lamb of God, oppressed and afflicted, brought as a lamb to the slaughter and was a sheep before her shearers, opening not His mouth then. (iii). The morning came, the morning of earth's darkest day, and the council, laying condemned Jesus to death, bound him and sent him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate, the governor. The King of the Jews, rejected by his own people, treated by them as an outcast, was now condemned to die.

About the time that our Lord was brought before Pilate, Judas brought the thirty pieces of silver he paid to the chief priests and elders that Jesus was innocent, threw down the money in the temple and went and hanged himself. (Matt. 27:3-5)

For a more full understanding of all that passed between Pilate and the Jewish rulers and Jesus see Luke xxiii, 4-26; John xviii, 28 to xix, 16. It is possible the great world power at that time, asked Jesus, "Art thou the king of the Jews?" he only says, "I said unto him he would not be king of the Jews."

person, but even now when some true believer speaks of Jesus as the King of the Jews, soon to return and sit on David's throne, asserting that he also to be considered by many very religious people to be an ignorant, weak-minded person, notwithstanding such Scriptural statements as Luke 1, 32.

Having confessed before the high priest and before Pilate that He is the Christ, the King of the Jews (Mark passover a prisoner, whomsoever they desired, and, having a notable prisoner, a murderer named Harabodas, he asked Jesus, the King of the Jews. He probably thought that they would surely choose Jesus, but he knew neither their murderous hearts nor the Goal of Love.

and was overturning all these things (Acts 19, 27, 28). The chief priests moved the people to ask for the release of Barabbas, and when Pilate asked what he should do with them, the killing of the Jews, they cried, "Cruelly Him?" and as I later again asked, "Why, what evil hath He done?" they cried the more exceedingly, "Cruelly

It appears from a harmony of the gospels here being before me as I write and quote from one or the other of the evangelists that Pilate later ceded for Jesus and offered to set Him free not less than seven times on that eventful morning. Peter surya that Pil-late was determined<sup>226</sup> to let Him go 4, 6, we hear Pilate say three times, "I find no fault in Him." Pilate's wife, because of a dream which she had, sent this message to her husband, "Have thou nothing to do with that lost man" (Matt. xxvii, 19). There seemed to be no one against Him but His own nation, and they so hate Him

So Pilate, willing to content the people, yet nothing contrary to his own conscience and against his wife's entreaty, released Barabbus, the murderer, and delivered Jesus, the innocent one, to be crucified. But since Pilate held Him to be innocent and washed his hands of the cruel thongs drew round his face marred more than any man? (1's.

People are dally choosing a murderer, the devil, or the Christ of God. Every one must face the question.

What shall I do with Christ? We cannot get rid of it any more than Plante could, and no amount of oil or soap and water can wash away our Breathitt Lodge No. 435 F. & A. M. Where the Great and Supreme Ruler of the universe has in his infinite wisdom removed from among us one of our beloved worthy and esteemed fellow laborer Brother James D. Moore who was 76 years old at death. His day of April 1904 and had been a member of this lodge for about 50 years.

Whereas the long and intimate relations held with him as a faithful and honored member of this lodge makes it eminently fitting that we record our appreciation therefor in a eulogy.

That his fidelity and service to our organization will be held in grateful remembrance.

Resolved: That such a removal of such a life from our midst leaves a vacancy and shadow that will be deeply realized by all the members and friends.

of this lodge and will prove a serious loss to the community and the public. We express our hope that even so deep a loss to all may be overruled for good by those who dwell all things well.

Resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of this lodge, a copy printed in the Mouthpiece and the 4th Ky Vol. Inf. News and a copy forwarded to the family of the deceased.

ROD WHITE

Excess Millions Annually by Destroying Farm Pests.

Washington, May 30.—The entomologists of the department of agriculture have been making an investigation of the economic value of the boll white, as a result of which it is now announced that that pest is "probably the most useful, abundant species on the farm." Field observations, experiments and examinations show that it consumes large quantities of weed seed, and destroys many of the worst insect pests with which farmers contend, and it does not injure grain, fruit or any other crop. It is figured that from Sept. 1 to April 30, annually in Virginia alone the total consumption of weed seed by boll white amounts to 575 tons. Some of the pests which it habitually destroys, the report says, are the Mexican cotton boll weevil, which damages the cotton crop upwards of $15,000,000 a year, the potato beetle, which costs off $10,000,000 from the value of the potato crop; the cotton worms, which have been known to cause $30,000,000 loss in a year; the elm bug and the rocky mountain locust, scourges which leave devastation in their path and have caused to the extent of $100,000,000 damage in some years.

Gillette Jury Discharged.

Bloomington, Ind., May 31.—After deliberating 42 hours, the jury in the case of the Gillette case, charged the jury in the Gillette case whether there was any probability of acquittal on a verdict, and every one of the 12 men shook his head in the negative. Judge Downey then thanked them and dismissed them from further service. Prosecutor McMullen said that the state would oppose any effort on the part of the defense to release James Gillette, and stated that the case would come up again next September. At the present time the four defendants are in the same position they were before the trial began as the bonds of those released from custody are continuous. Whether or not the defense will elect to be tried separately or jointly, as on this trial, the future will determine.

Baltimore's Mayor Suicides.

Baltimore, May 31.—Standing before the mirror of a dressing case at his home, Mayor Robert M. McLean said a bullet crashing through his brain and expired within an hour. His name can be assigned for the act by the members of the city's faculty. Since the fire of last February he had been kept assiduously at work administering the affairs of the city, besides endeavoring to direct the reconstruction and rebuilding of the burned district. This, together with criticism by his political opponents are thought by many to have caused a temporary aberration of mind.

Poisoned by Canned Peas.

New York, May 31.—After eating a can of green peas a few days ago an entire family, consisting of five persons, were taken ill. Two of them have already died, a third can not recover, and two others are still ill, although it is believed their chances of recovery are good. Giuseppe Olbraccio, his wife Marie, his daughter Angelina 18, and his sons Vincent, 14, and Antonio, 11, had a can of peas for supper a short time later they were taken ill and rapidly grew worse. The elder son and Angelina died, and Antonio is beyond help.

Convention Postponed.

Indianapolis, May 30.—The Democratic state convention has been postponed from July 20 to Aug. 3. A paragraph in notice of postponement reads: "The convention will be composed of the delegates selected prior to May 12, 1904, and the officers and committees of the state convention held on the said May 12, 1904." The reason for the postponement is assigned to a request from many editors who wish to go on the excursion of Democratic editors to Canada.

Died in a Hotel.

Decatur, Ala., May 28.—Colonel C. C. Sheats, one of the most noted characters in Alabama's history, was found dead in a hotel. Colonel Sheats was a member of the secession convention in this state and voted against Alabama going out of the Union. He was at one time United States minister to Denmark, and was elected governor of Alabama just after the civil war, but was not allowed to take his seat. Formerly he was very rich, but died a pauper.

A Strong Testimonial.

Paris, Ky., Nov. 26th, 1900.

Dr. T. R. McRae:

Fifteen years ago I was seriously afflicted with my kidneys and bladder. I suffered with severe burning pains, semitones of urine, which was thick like glue, and often as red as blood and oh, how painful! In a word I was in a very bad fix at the time I met you in Falmouth, Ky., fifteen years ago and consulted with you. You then guaranteed two bottles of Smith's Kidney Tonic to cure me. I took the two bottles as directed and it cured me and I never have been troubled since, for which I am so grateful.

Gentlemen:
About two years ago I entered the Chicago Engineering course in your school in order to obtain the reference library that goes with it and I give you pleasure to say that I value the same very highly. I have carefully examined the manual and use it frequently in my work and find it a very thorough and practical exposition of all subjects pertaining to engineering. I found it better adapted to the requirements of the working engineer than anything heretofore published.

Yours truly,
A. C. HARRIS.

Mr. Joseph L. Tomlinson, of Stillman town, after having spent over 42000 with the best doctors for stomach trouble, without relief, was advised by his daughter, Mr. Alex. Richmond, to try a box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. He did so and was well man today. He could not tell himself how he felt in the mouth, but he felt better in his stomach, gave these Tablets a trial and you are certain to be more than pleased with the result.

die has died from an attack of cholera or cholera morbus, often before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. A reliable remedy for these diseases should be kept at hand. The risk is too great for anyone to take Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has undoubtedly saved the lives of more people and relieved more pain and suffering than any other medicine in use. It can always be depended upon. For sale by Day Bros. Co.

GREATLY ALARMED
By a Persistent Cough but Per- manently Cured by Chamber- lain's Cough Remedy

Mr. H. P. Burge, a student at law in Greenville, South Carolina, had been troubled for four or five years with a persistent cough which became "greatly alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Mr. Burge had seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, and decided to try it. Now read what he says of it: "I soon felt a remarkable change and after using two bottles of the twenty-five cent size was permanently cured." Sold by Day Bros. Co.

REBELS LOST HEAVILY.
Dontdown Troops Engage a Force of Revolutionists.

Capo Haitien, Haiti, May 20. - Da-merican government troops, commanded by General Raoul Cabre, and Dominican revolutionary troops, led by General Polio Lasalle and other generals, met recently at Cap-Haitien.
San Domingo, midway between Santiago de los Caballeros and Mont-Cristi. In the fighting which followed the government forces had 30 men killed or wounded and the revolutionists lost heavily. Five revolutionary generals, including Papillat, sought refuge in the French and Venezuelan consulates here and later embarked on the French steamer Olinda Havre Guez, bound for Porto Rico. All is quiet at present in Haiti.

Bryan on Reorganization.
Chicago, May 23. - William J. Bryan said while in Chicago that he thought the Democratic party would not be reorganized at the St. Louis convention.
"The plan to bring about reorganization of the party will be defeated," he said. "The paramount issue in the campaign will be government by the people as against government by the corporations. These people will control the St. Louis convention and the Kansas City platform will be reaffirmed in my judgment." "Do you expect to go to St. Louis as a delegate?" was asked. "Well, it looks that way now, though I can't be sure," was the reply.

Double Tragedy.
Duluth, Pa., May 23. - Frank Paul, a prominent man of Cardiff, 11 miles east of here, while visiting friends at a boarding house near his home became involved in a quarrel with Sa-verio Pelligrino, an inmate of the house. Paul left hurriedly for his home, leaving his hat lying on the ground in front of the house. His wife went for the hat, when she was shot dead by Pelligrino. Paul immediately went to the boarding house with a shotgun and killed the Italian.
He was arrested.

Turks and Armenians Clash.
London, May 19. - The Central News correspondent at Baku, Caucasus, reports a serious fight between Armenians and Turkish troops at Chelien-can, in the district of Mush. The Turks lost 136 in killed and wounded while the Armenians had their leader and many others killed.

Patient Suicides.
Cincinnati, May 24. - John Mellinger, 32, a prominent farmer of near Springfield, O., cut his throat at the Bethesda Hospital. Mellinger's mind became unbalanced about seven weeks ago, and three weeks ago he was brought to the Bethesda hospital for treatment.

No One But Yourself
If You Don't Get
Well When Sick.

It is common to say,
"Our whole family is sick with a little more to you than most people, for we offer to give you the first bottle of our medicine free, if it fails to help you." We could not afford to do this unless our medicine was good. Such an offer, on the wrong kind of medicine, would do no more than to put the poor family in a worse position than it was in.
Dr. Miller's Nervine, however, as years of experience have proved, is a medicine that cures the sick.

Those whom it cannot benefit less than any in the household, we prefer to refund their money.

All we ask of you is to try Dr. Miller's Restorative Nervine for your complaint.
If you suffer from sleeplessness, nervousness, indigestion, headache, incessant twitches, including twitches of memory, weak stomach, poor blood, tuberculous, epilepsy, St. Vitus' dance, etc., we will guarantee to benefit you or refund your money.

You are the doctor.
"My son Bert, when in his 17th year, became subject to attacks of epilepsy, so serious that we were compelled to take him out of school. After several months of treatment, we were compelled to give up. We then tried Dr. Miller's Nervine, and after a few days we noticed a marked improvement. After three months treatment with Nervine and Liver Pills, Bert is now a healthy boy, and is attending school. Address: Dr. J. C. Miller, 1001 N. 10th St., St. Paul, Minn., U.S.A."
